River scenes like this one are among my primal scenes. Women bathing outside are another primal scene. From what I remember, "Tarzan" was the first movie I ever saw. Tarzan is another of my primal scenes and I'm still fond of Tarzan even today.	2001	Oil and collage on canvas	100×80.3	Katsuyuki Nakamura	06-29
I went to Bangkok to visit "WAT ARUN" which is the title of the third volume of his last novel "Fertile Sea" by Yukio Mishima. At that time, it was snowing in Tokyo, I was under the golden light in Bangkok, nevertheless another Yokoo was in Tokyo. I painted it by the sense of bilocation.	2001	Acrylic on canvas	130.3×162.1	Takahashi Ryutaro Collection	06-30

I was born on the same day as Helen Keller, June 27, to my father's younger brother and his wife, and adopted by the main Yokoo family. My adoptive parents told me they found me under the bridge. Since small, I often lay beneath the stars imagining my destiny; and I likened myself to a firefly, which twinkles like a star. I know clearly that an invisible guardian spirit and the Rat of the Chinese zodiac have been my companions on my long voyage.	2001	Acrylic on canvas	227.3×181.9	Collection of the Artist (Deposited in Museum of Contemporary Art Tokyo)	06-31
